Leaves Me Cold

Lush

Dream's deep heat, teasing my mind
Sleep peels sweet, stealing my sighs
She breathes deep when he's inside
Dream's deep heat poisons my mindInside me, there's a separate world
It's winning and I'm losing control
I'm coming but my eyes are closed
I'm coming but it leaves me coldNight's bright lights dim in the day
Blind eyes smile at you today
I find, I'm falling away
My eyesight's never the sameInside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me coldInside me, there's a separate girl
She's winning and I'm losing control
She coming but my eyes are closed
She's coming but I wake up and it leaves me cold
