Cold Grey Sky

Richard Julian

Cold grey sky, I don't stand a chance
There's a naked branch out the window and I
Feel that bitter chill, makes my heart stand still Something 'bout a cold grey skyIt's real, a feeling inside
That it's real
It's got nothing to hide
It's real, it's realSummer's gone, came and went like that
Blew away like a hat, oh, but who needs the sun
It just leads you on, the one who takes you home
Always the cold grey skyIt's real, it won't be denied
That it's real
It's got nothing to hide
It's real, it's realSummer's gone, came and went like that
Blew away like a hat and left this cold grey skySomething 'bout a cold grey sky
