

Jody And the Kid

Roy Drusky

She would meet me in the morning on my way down to the river
 Waitin' patient by the chinaberry tree
 With her feet already dusty from the pathway to the levee
 And her little blue jeans rolled up to her knees
 And I'd paid her no attention as she tagged along beside me
 Trying hard to copy everything I did
 But I couldn't keep from smiling when I'd hear somebody saying
Looky yonder there goes Jody and the kid Even after we grew older we could still be seen together
 As we walked along the levee holding hands
 For as surely as the seasons she was changing to a woman
 And I'd lived enough to call myself a man
 And she often lay beside me in the coolness of the evening
 Till the morning sun was shining on my bed
And at times when she was sleeping I would smile when I'd remember
 How they used to call us Jody and the kid
 [piano]
Now the world's a little older and the years have changed the river
 Cause there's houses where they didn't used to be
 And on Sundays I go walking down the pathway to the levee
 With another little girl who follows me
And it makes the old folks smile to see her tag along beside me
 Doin' little things the way her mama did
 But it gets a little lonesome when I hear somebody saying
 Looky yonder there goes Jody and the kid
