Obedience

Unlearned

This is how we try to keep warm.
And trust me you'll need it when it's cold.
One more thing just so you don't forget.
Don't wake him when he's sleeping.
Try and hide before he sees you.
You can try but I'm that you won't.
Don't you cry so that he hears you.
I am sure that you won't.And you'll despise yourself for dreaming.
Hate yourself for believing.
Lie to yourself in obedience.For how long will it be this dark?
The light's been gone since ever.
How are we supposed to carry on?
Are we here forever?And you'll despise yourself for dreaming.
Hate yourself for believing.
Lie to yourself in obedience.
obedience.
And you will cry yourself to sleep.
Fight yourself to not give in.
Lie to yourself in obedience.
Does anybody miss her?
Can anybody hear her?
Does anybody scream her name?
Does anybody miss herTry and hide before he sees you.
You can try but I'm that you won't.
Don't you cry so that he hears you.
But I am sure that you won't.And you'll despise yourself for dreaming.
Hate yourself for believing.
Lie to yourself in obedience.
Obedience.
And you will cry yourself to sleep.
Fight yourself to not give in.
Lie to yourself in obedience.
Obedience...
