

Don't Walk Away

Decyfer Down

You're waiting
Waiting till the end
The voices
Voices from within
Will face you
Will get you in the end
No time left to pretend Don't walk away
You have to face the fire and the flame
The never ending cycle of the shame
The bitter taste of pleasure with the pain
Don't walk away
You're faking
Faking it within
Pulling unraveling within
Pushing down on you again
No time left to pretend Don't walk away
You have to face the fire and the flame
The never ending cycle of the shame
The bitter taste of pleasure with the pain
Don't walk away Don't walk away Don't walk away
You have to face the fire and the flame
The never ending cycle of the shame
The bitter taste of pleasure with the pain
Don't walk away
You have to face the fire and the flame
The never ending cycle of the shame
The bitter taste of pleasure with the pain
Don't walk away
