This Time

Solea

Could have swore i felt the blame come crashing down
Pounding on my door
Open my eyes and it's all the same
Familiar sight coming back for more

The puzzle pieces you can't find
Are handed back to you for your piece of mind
The only chance you had has lost it's way
Try to care as i kiss your face
This time , This time

Wish i could name the streets i've found
Incomplete impossible to show
Wishing that i could hear that sound sing to me
Then i can just let go

The puzzle pieces you can't find
Are handed back to you for your piece of mind
The only chance you had you has lost it's way
Try to care as i kiss your face
This time , This time
