Thunder

Labyrinth

Look at the fire and follow the light dancing around in the night look at it's flames burning up, reaching out for the SkyThat is the way I could say how I feel feeling the flame burning me flowin' inside out my blood cold as steellike a Thunder my Rage Could explode in your face
Like a Thunder my Rage
Like a Thunder ...I feel Fire is burning inside my reason's losing the fight my lust for Vengeance is calling and claiming my PrideLook at the fire and follow the light
dancing around in the night
look at it's flames burning up, reaching out for the Skylike a Thunder my Rage
Could explode in your face
Like a Thunder my Rage
Like a Thunder ...[SOLO: TH-RSEN/RAIN]like a Thunder my Rage
Could explode in your face
Like a Thunder my Rage
Like a Thunder ...[Magnani C., Cantarelli F.]
