Beating Like A Drum

Eskimo Joe

This room is like the belly of a ghost
Swaying to the rhythm
Of a heart that is now lostSo tell me that I'm wrong
Tell me that there's consequence
Or do you still remember me alive?
Beating like a drumI had a lot to drink last night
Now I'm feeling old
Is there anything that I can buy
That I have not soldSo tell me that I'm gone
From your state of mind
Do you still remember me alive?
Do you still remember me alive?
Beating like aDrum that beats upon the door
A shadow underneath the floor
I don't want to shoot this gun
But everything just stops
Like the beat of a drumTell me that I'm wrong
Tell me that there's consequence
Or do you still remember me alive?
Beating like a drum
Beating like a drum
Beating like a drum
