

Gone Crazy

Merle Haggard

Well, you took my love for granted
And I gave it all willingly
But seeing you with someone else
Was the breaking point for meI know I'm going crazy
I can feel it coming on
The signs are all around me
And I know I'll soon be goneGone crazy, I may be hard to find
Gone crazy, somewhere out of my mindBut there'll be laughter all around me
When they come and take me away
And in case you see me leaving
Oh, you can bet I've gone to stayI know you're gonna miss me
When you find I've gone insane
But I got the right to lose my mind
If I can't stand the painGone crazy, I may be hard to find
Gone crazy, somewhere out of my mind
Well, I'll be somewhere out of my mind
