

I Am The Weapon

David Usher

Walking underwater
Sinking in the sand
Thought I saw the future
It's just out of reach
Weighs me like an anchor
Wraps around our feet
Drags me to the city
I can see
You and I are helpless
Falling like the leaves
Blowing through the city
I am the weapon (x4)
Forget the world I promised
Take only what you need

Things that really matter
You know that we're helpless
Just waiting on our knees
And nothing really matters
I am the weapon (x4)
So we crumble into sand
Takes the better part of me
Leaves me waiting by the shore
And I don't care I don't care
I don't need you, I won't ever let go
So we crumble 'til it's gone
Walking underwater
Sinking in the sand
Thought I saw the future
I am the weapon (x6)
