

Sweet Sundown

Kelly Willis

How did you compete with such a tragic week
How on earth did you know what to say
And could you taste those tears on my tremblin' lips
When you kissed my blues away Our time was short but the days were long
I was tired but never too tired for you
What a dragged away goodbye to your birthday girl
When you cant afford the tickets for two And when the sundown
Somethin up against an autumn sky
Now sundown is nothing I would ever recognize Sittin on the docks late one evening
Who could miss such a beautiful view
Sweet sundown, I have nothing but love for you Once the Howard lakes have frozen
And the bats go back to Mexico
The backstreet's are more than poison
One each to someone you used to know The canyons were grand but I just couldnt stand
A regret for a rendez' affair
And once that moon went down on your Texas town
It was too late to pretend you cared And when the sundown
Somethin up against an autumn sky
Now sundown is nothing I would ever recognize Sittin' on the docks late one evening
Who could miss such a beautiful view
Sweet sundown, I have nothing but love for you And when the sundown
Somethin up against an autumn sky
Now sundown is nothing I would ever recognize Sittin on the docks late one evening
Who could miss such a beautiful view
Sweet sundown, I have nothing but love for you
Oh, sweet sundown, I have nothing but love for you
