Don't Wake Me

Love and Theft

You took your heart and broke down the wall
Even though I thought that I had seen it all
The water's still, it looks so clear
I'm gonna get lost inside and I will disappear
But now I only wanna hide awayDon't wake me, I'm in deep
Don't break me, I feel weak
I've tasted, now I'm wasted and I can't let go
Your love is all I wanna knowAnd I pray beyond the stars
And that you and me will stay just like we are
And I don't care if it's all a dream
But that's where I am and where I wanna be
But now I only wanna hide awayDon't wake me, I'm in deep
Don't break me, I feel weak
I've tasted, now I'm wasted and I can't let go
Your love is all I wanna knowAnd I can't promise you anything
'Cause I don't know what love's gonna bring
So stay with me in this dream
'Cause when I come around, when I come around
All might be another wayDon't wake me, I'm in deep
Don't break me, I feel weak
I've tasted, now I'm wasted and I can't let go
Your love is all I wanna knowYou took your heart and broke down the wall
Even though I thought that I had seen it all
