

Glass

Sad Red

I wonder why?
Why? Why? Why? Why?
Why? Why? Why? Why?
If I had a dime for every time
    You walked away
    I could afford to not give a shit
    And buy a drink and drown the day
    But your pockets, they are empty, yeah
        And mine are times two
        So why not make an about face
        And accept the love I send to you?
    You're never gonna be content if you don't try
        Try to see outside your line
        There you go, you did it again
        You act as if there's blinders on your eyes
        Should I apologize?
    If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
        Or did I crack your shell?
    When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
        Like a bottle with the cork stuck
        Your true ingredients trapped up inside
    Through the cloudy glass we catch a glimpse of you
        I guess the hard shell represents your pride
        Oh, if only it could be different
        We could uncover the you, you deny
        Between two, a small discrepancy

    One complicates and one simplifies
    You're never gonna be content if you don't try
        Try to see outside your line
        There you go, you did it again
        You act as if there's blinders on your eyes
        Should I apologize?
    If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
        Or did I crack your shell?
    When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
        There, there you go, there you, there you go
        Looks, looks good
        Take those fucking blinders off your eyes

So if I had a dime for every time
You walked away
You could bet your bottom dollar that
I'd be filthy rich by noon today
Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
