Grimes

It's always coming,
It's always coming,
I know you're running away now, but they won't get me,
he tried to get me,
you're coming at me,
and it's cold,go where you wana go, when you get there you'll be wishing you where sat at home, oooh, go (go) where you wana go, because the skys the limit and I can't stop, and I know,i see you looking my way, you want to fight me now, i see you looking my way, you want to fight me,
I am one you know,go where you wana go, when you get there you'll be wishing you where sat at home, oooh, go (go) where you wana go, because the sky's the limit and i can't stop, and I know,
