

Coulda Been Me

Candice Glover

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

All you had, all you said
Girl that could've been you
Why you mad? Why you sad?
Girl that could've been you
She got everything you had
Girl that could've been you
Girl that could've been you
Girl that should've been you Sometimes I sit back and deal with the fact that
That girl could've been me
Girl that could've been you
Girl that could've been you And now all I do is watch you and feel like the fool to know that
That girl could've been me
Girl that could've been you
Girl that could've been you Could've been me in your arms
Oh safe and warm
Could've been me with those kisses
Oh oh, those sweet kisses
Could've be me with that life
Oh love that first time
That girl could've been me
Girl that could've been you
Girl that should've been you How did I miss out
On a perfect love?
Was I just that damn blind to not see it? She's such a lucky girl
Oh oh, she has the world
Cause I know you're gonna make sure she does Could've been me in your arms
Oh safe and warm
Could've been me with those kisses
Oh oh, those sweet kisses
Could've be me with that life
Oh love that first time
That girl could've been me

Girl that could've been you
Girl that should've been you Could've been me in your arms
Oh safe and warm
Could've been me with those kisses
Oh, those sweet kisses
Me with that life
Oh love that first time
That girl could've...
That girl could've...
Said that girl could've been me
Girl that could've been you
Girl that should've been you All you had, all you said
Girl that could've been you
Why you mad? Why you sad?
Girl that could've been you
She got everything you had
Girl that could've been you
Girl that could've been you
Girl that should've been you
