It's All the Same

Spirit

Someone here will try and waste your time
And someone there will try and lead you blind
Life seems to be wandering 'round and 'round
Searching for the that which can be foundIt's you, you, you, it's me, me, me
It's you and me, babe, we're all the sameAnd if you ever ask me if it's real
I couldn't tell you more than what you feel
You learn to read and write and spell your name
And find out in the end, it's all the sameIt's you, you, you, it's me, me, me
It's you and me, babe, we're all the sameSomeone here will try and waste your time
And someone there will try and lead you blind
Life seems to be wandering 'round and 'round
Searching for the that which can be foundIt's you, you, you, it's me, me, me
Well, it's you and me, babe, we're all the sameIt's all the same, it's all the same
It's all the same, it's all the same
It's all the same, it's all the same
It's all the same, it's all the same
