

Just Like a Man (Live 2014)

Del Amitri

I still don't believe it, how much we lied
Last night you made it with him now I'm supposed to be dignified
Just like a man Well I spend my night times drinking and you spend your days in bed
And I guess it's up to us to choose the methods by which we forget And just like a man he holds you gently
And just like a man he strokes your hair
And just like a man I still pretend that
I'm immune to the whole affair But I wanna die, I wanna cry, I wanna tell you that I was wrong
Ya, I wanna die, I wanna cry but it's too late
So I soldier on just like a man I don't believe it, you were easy to leave but now
I do my best to relieve it in the only way that I know how
Just like a man And I don't wanna possess you and I don't wanna take his place
But I don't wanna see my last few pleasures written all over his face And just like a man he holds you gently
And just like a man he strokes your hair
And just like a man I still pretend that
I'm immune to the whole affair But I wanna die, I wanna cry, I wanna tell you that I was wrong
Ya, I wanna die, I wanna cry but it's too late
So I soldier on just like a man
Ain't that just like a man, just like a man
Ain't that just like a man And I have something to tell you but it doesn't matter now
I'll stick to small talk and leave the little bits of flattery to him
And I could call you but why would I bother to
You might not be in or he might misunderstand
Just like a man I wanna die, I wanna cry, I wanna tell you that I was wrong
Ya, I wanna die, I wanna cry but it's too late
So I soldier on just like a man Ya, I wanna die, I wanna cry, I wanna tell you that I was wrong
Ya, I wanna die, I wanna cry but it's too late
So ain't that just like a man
