

This Is Not (real Love)

Mutya Buena

Don't kiss me, darling
I want you to hear the things I say
I loved you in my way
But you know I'm gonna leave youThe clock was always ticking
And your heart,
Yes I know your heart is always on the runI hate what I've become
But I'm still gonna leave you
And I don't think you should stay for the nightBaby you know that my flesh is weak
You know I simplyI cannot sleep without you
My heart has simply nowhere to goNothing to hold
Those tears you're cryingTime and time again you take me back in baby
You don't have to make it plain
This is not real loveLook at us dancing baby
Let's dance and show them all
(Dance and show them all)
How close we are
The lies have worked so far
So we go on deceivingBut darling don't you know the time
Baby, look at yourself, holding back the tide
Like you've got something else up your sleeve
That's why I've got to leaveAnd I don't think you should stay here tonight
(Baby you know that my flesh is weak, you know)
I simply I cannot sleep without you
But someday I'll have nothing to show
(Nothing to show)
(Nothing to show)
I've nothing to holdOh, baby, crying
All those simple things that won't come again
Oh do I have to make it plain
This is not real loveAnd I said this is not real love
Real love
Baby it don't glisten and shine the way it used toThis is not real love (real love)
Baby think of all the promises I made on the day that I seduced you
Baby don't wait for me like some angel of tragedy
I have to set you free
Darling you should be long gone, oh long gone by nowYou should be with someone, someone
Glisten and shine
You promised meYou've gotta face it woman, you ain't ever gonna change meWhere will I go, what do I know
About life without you

You promised me you'd never leave me, no
