

Runaway

Wishbone Ash

I thought I had been every place a man could be,
'till I met a lady who brought me to my knees.
The day I stop loving is the day that I die,
But now I'm running from her game 'cause the lady is a lie. I've got a choice
Run away or be torn to shreds.
I've got a life and I want to live
Don't want to be dead. I met her down in the underground,
Got a taste of the low life, just creepin' around.
I got what I came for and more, that's for sure,
'cause now I'm running from her game, can't take any more. I've got a choice
Run away or be torn to shreds.
I've got a life and I want to live
Don't want to be dead.
