

Your Mistake

Melanie C

I should concentrate on slowing down
'Cause all I wanna do is drive fast
I dont think I know my way around
Im seeing what Ive already passed Ive been racing through my life without Really knowing where I fit in
Its only dreams and my reflection now
Where I still see him I might break
Im all thats left from your mistake
Im still trying to prove myself to you
I cant escape from this as fast as you
All these years dont fade away my feelings
I only see us leaving, oh, oh I convince myself I understand
So there isnt anybody to blame
If you'd tried and played a different hand
I wonder if Id still be the same All this time Ive watched you moving on Running from the way that we were
Even though I know that girl is gone
You still see her I might break
Im all thats left from your mistake
Im still trying to prove myself to you
I cant escape from this as fast as you
All these years dont fade away my feelings
I only see us leaving, oh, oh Im not frozen, I just feel the cold
When all these memories open up again, oh I might break
Im all thats left from your mistake
Im still trying to prove myself to you
I cant escape from this as fast as you
You see him gone I only see us leaving, oh, oh
See us leaving, oh, oh
I only see us leaving, see us leaving
See us leaving, oh, oh
