Better Now

Rascal Flatts

If I had one call to make
I would dial yesterday
And warn myselfTell my lips the words to say
And not let you just walk away
With someone else, with someone elseNext time I won't suffer this kind of pain
Own my mistakes and I just pass off all the blame
If you were here, we could figure this out
Then I wouldnt be bitter, Id just be better nowTo be the strong and silent one
A lot of good that has done
Yes, you'd agreeNo more tryin' to understand
Or fix these things because you can
Guess its up to me, yeah, its up to meNext time I wont suffer this kind of pain
Own my mistakes and I just pass off all the blame
If you were here, we could figure this out
Then I wouldnt be bitter, Id just be better nowI'd be much better off
Much better off
Maybe if I could just let it go
With no regrets leftNext time I wont suffer this kind of pain
Own my mistakes and I just pass off all the blame
Youd still be here and we'd figure this out
Then I wouldnt be bitter, ohh no, I wouldnt be bitter
I'd just be better now
