

I Fell in Love With a Dead Boy

Antony and the Johnsons

I find you
With red tears in your eyes
I ask you what is your name?
You offer no reply
Should I call a doctor?
For I fear you might be dead
But I just lay down beside you
And held your head I fell in love with you
Now you're my one and only
All my life I've been so blue
But in that moment you fulfilled me
Now I tell all my friends
I fell in love with a dead boy
I tell my family
I wish you could have met him
I write letters to Australia
I throw a bottle out to sea
I whisper the secret in the ground
No one's gonna take you away from me!
I fell in love with a dead boy
Oh such a beautiful boy
I asked him are you a boy or a girl?
