

Wantin' Her Again

Ben Kweller

That girl, she has me runnin'
Back and forth and over again
Says she's gonna love me
But she just won't tell me when
She won't ever say 'cause she just wants to play
Oh, she just wants me wantin' her again
She comes from California so she's got a lot of guys
That's where she was born, ya right, beneath the ol' sunshine
I'm a lonely man but she don't understand
No, she just wants me wantin' her again
Ooh, she loves to know, ooh, that I need to know
Ooh, everywhere she wants to go
That girl's a crook
She's got my heart in her pocketbook
She don't even wanna be my friend
She just wants me wantin' her again
Ooh, I thought about it, ooh, I can live without it
Ooh, I'm gonna stand up straight
I'd appreciate all the things she done
If that girl was smart she'd be on the run
She'd be happy to dig a hole and throw you in
She just wants me wantin' her again
Just wantin' her again, just wantin' her again
