Eternal Battle

Mendozza

pounding your drums signals attack, this is your future there's no turning back, centuries and ancient blood feud, candles holding souls on the floor, gather the coven,
the hunt begins with their bloody hearts, bell toll in the night, fear subsides and brings you to your knees, chain of lite is broken, haunted by the echoes of their screams, lest you take your last breath,
consequence of my faithe, these hands will take it all,
no sense of time and there's no turning back, the hammer will fall as the birthright remains, awaken the master,
death dealers have come here for your heart, guide us pastor,
give us strength tonight it will be long,
night is lifting,
those that lived have scattered to the wind, blood of lycan, hanted by the echoes of their screams,
lest you take your last breath,
consequence of my faihte,
