Wheeler

Thirty Ought Six

There's nothing to look forward to at all Missed all the lucky spots, but I guess that was on purpose Nothing comes my way, well not today anyway
I guess I wouldn't have to feel this way
It feels like nothing stayed the same
One accident almost never comes alone
I know you're only a call away but it's not that easy
I don't have that courageI wouldn't force you If you don't want to It's all up to you
If you don't want toHave you ever considered me, not being what you want
