First Time

King the Kid

You know it, feels like the first time Know it, feels like the first timeI never thought we'd ever let this thing unfold I never thought I'd see your face walking out the doorAnother day, another month, another year since you've been gone but now you're here, and I don't know, why we ever let this goYou know it, feels like the first time Know it, feels like the first time Our time has passed
we've grown apart
remember yesterday
but now it, seems like the first timeWe were high school sweethearts and we thought it'd never endand looking back it all makes sense you were more than just a friendanother day, another month, another year since you've been gone but now you're here, and I don't know, why we ever let this goYou know it, feels like the first time
Know it, it feels like the first time
Our time has passed
we've grown apart
remember yesterday
but now it, seems like the first timeI, I never saw it coming and you never thought we'd be back here again never thought we'd be back here againYou know it, feels like the first time Know it, it feels like the first time
Our time has passed
we've grown apart
remember yesterday
but now it, seems like the first timeNever gonna let this go now this love is all I've ever known every minute last forever when I'm alone with you we know Ooo Oooo
this love is all I've ever known
this love is all I've ever known

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/