

New Breed

Caesars

Wake up
Lift that tired face up from the street
Look around and tell me what you see
You know the new breed is moving in
Tomorrow weighs so heavy on your shoulders
You see that same reflection everyday
Another new breed is moving in
I feel a storm is coming on
A hollow wind is blowing strong
When it comes knocking on your door
You won't be laughing anymore
Wake up
And tell me how you've always been misguided
You had everything and threw it all away

Another new breed is moving in
You found out what it means to be a failure
Pick up those dice and roll them once again
'Cause it's a new day that begins
You feel the storm that's coming on
A hollow wind is growing strong
When it comes knocking on your door
You won't be laughing anymore
'Cause the new breed is moving in
Yeah, the knew breed is moving in
'Cause the new breed is moving in
Yeah, the knew breed is moving in
'Cause the new breed is moving in
