

To Whom It May Concern

The Civil Wars

Why are you so far from me?
In my arms is where you ought to be
How long will you make me wait?
I don't know how much more I can take
I've missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh, but I want to
How I do
Slowly counting down the days
'Til I finally know your name
The way your hand feels 'round my waist
The way you laugh, the way your kisses taste
I've missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh, but I want to
How I do
How I do
I've missed you
But I haven't met you
Oh, how I miss you
But I haven't met you
Oh, but I want to
Oh, how I want to
Dear whoever you might be
I'm still waiting patiently
