

Meet Me In Georgia

Gasoline Heart

Holding hands with a stranger
Stranger shares my bed
Got a mouth full of candy
Young girl's regret Everyone loves a scandal
Love to watch them struggle
Makes them feel so much stronger
Look, I'm ten feet tall And it's all uphill unless we all fall down
And it's all uphill unless we all fall down She took his hand and followed
Silver rings exchanged
Blank stares veil their faces
Their names now the same Now there's no more surprises
Except when it rains
Her dreams have lost purpose
California's nice so she should not complain And it's all uphill unless we all fall down
And it's all uphill unless we all fall down So meet me in Georgia
Make sure you're not late
Under hillside and skyline
The city stays awake Two lovers under a stairwell
Right on the edge
And the dream's been ripped off
Just like her dress And it's all uphill unless we all fall down
And it's all uphill unless we all fall down So meet me in Georgia
Make sure you're not late
Under hillside and skyline
The city stays awake Two lovers under a stairwell
Right on the edge
And this dream's been ripped off
Just like her dress
Just like her dress tonight

Songwriters

DEFABRIZIO, LOUIS JAMES / BECKER, ANNA ELIZABETH Published by Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>