Don't Cry for Me

William Control

I awoke from a night laid in ice
Well, goddamn, she's gone
Now my body's a messThe voices screaming, no
I can't hear a word
And this gun eyes closed
Will put my body to restAll I see is sadness
I can stand the rain
I fall in to madness
And all of your hateI've seen enough it's killing me
It's time to go, it's time to breathe
I've lost and loved so much
