I've Been Loving You

Sandra NkakÃ©

I didn't mean to hurt you
You know, it's just my way
Those things that I said yesterday
Were things I shouldn't sayAlthough you're blue
Just one thing I want you to do
Just forget all those things
That I said about you'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to doYes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship youI couldn't bear to see you go
Oh, no, no, no, noSo don't you feel sad
It's not the thing to do
Because I worry
If I know you're feeling bluePlease, put your tears away
So nobody can see
'Cause the last thing I want
Is for you to cry over me'Cause I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to doYes, I've been loving you baby
Loving you baby for a long time
And you know in your heart
That I'll always worship you'Cause I've been lovin' you baby
Lovin' you baby for a long time
And if you go away
I just won't know what to do
