Why Good People Suffer

Stavesacre

i tell you what i want tonever more than what is safei show you what i want toand the rest i hide away towards the basest of things sometimes i can feel myself leaningam i just a liar? or a killer? or a beast?should i sit in judgement?do i have to judge me?(chorus) i couldn't tell you why good people sufferi couldn't tell you why the bad ones run freeGod showers blessings on the righteous and the wickedi only know that that covers medo i feel like screamingwhen the weak fall to the strong?would i trade my freedom for a cheap thrill?right for wrong?
and if i could just rid the world of all the evil withinwould that include me?i guess that would dependwho am i?
