So sure, so sure you are Nothing can touch you now I need to know, did you think of me? But you're forgetting me nowSlow down, don't be so Eager to let me go Realize it could change you It could change your mindTry, try, try Try, try, try All things remain the same So, why try again? Try againSlow down, don't be so Eager to let me go I need to know, do you think of me? But you've forgotten me nowTry, try, try Try, try, try All things remain the same So, why try again? Try again Try again, try againTry, try, try Try, try, try All things remain the same So, why try again? Try again Try again, try againTry, try, again Try, try, again
