Asking for Flowers

Kathleen Edwards

It's complicated
Technically I'm certified

A walking declaration

Of everything I couldn't get rightTime is just an anchor But 7 years I think I'm right

And now you've changed your number

It's like a noose around my lifeEvery pill I took in vain

Every meal for you I made

Every penny I put awayAsking for flowers

Is like asking you to be nice

Don't tell me you're too tired

10 years I've been working nightsMy life is like a picture left

Out too long in the sun

Now I'm trying to remember

All the faces of the names I've lovedAnd all that's left to me now

Is a cigarette burning bright

Fading memory of

All the things I tried to get rightEvery pill I took in vain

Every meal for you I made

Every plan I tried to makeAnd asking for flowers

Is like asking you to be nice

Don't tell me you're too tired

10 years I've been working nightsEvery pill I took in vain

Every meal for you I made

Every bill I went and paid

Every card I signed my nameEvery time I poured my heart out

Every threat you made to move out

Every cruel word you let just slip out

Every cruel word you let just slip outAsking for flowers

Is like asking you to be nice

Don't tell me you're too tired

10 years I've been working nightsDon't tell me you're too tired 10 years I've been working nights
