

Flashbacks

Kristinia DeBarge

It was summer
We can feel it in the air
Seasons of color and the girls all have their wavy hair
Tried to score a nice boy for the weekend, yea Give me something
Something I cannot forget
I'm so tired of all the same old parties getting late
They are so dumb and they get out of line all the time
But...CHORUS:
Then you called me
Suddenly my world got crazy
Ooh your touch electrified me
You're turning me on, you're turning me on
Boy you hit me with a flashback, flashback
Come on, tell me how you did that, did that
You know you still give me flashbacks, flashbacks
You're turning me on We were cooling, bonfires on the beach
Never knew that I would ever see this part of me
All my life when your lips kiss mine
Do you feel it too?
And baby...CHORUS You're turning me on I am so high
Higher, higher
I am so high on your love
And I just can't get enough CHORUS
