Exiles (The Wolves of Midwinter)

Mary Fahl

When the shadows fall
and the fires burn
The forest calls to me and I must return
The night becomes primordial it murmurs and it hums
It draws me into mysteries with the sound of beating drumsAnd I'm so alive
I cant explain
I feel the moonlight
I sense the rain
The ghosts inside the looking glass
I hear their spectral sighs and the tender sounds of innocence that haunt me with their criesYou and I
We are free
We belong to eternity
Ancient exiles are weWhen the hunger comes and I lose control
Hold me in the darkness
Bless my tarnished soul
I will run beside you
We'll leave the past behind
We'll hide inside the ages
Beneath the sands of timeYou and I
We are free
We belong to eternity
Ancient exiles are weYou and I
We are free
We belong to eternity
Ancient exiles are we
Yes we're exiles
You and me
