Goldilocks Goldilocks

Peter Combe

There once was a young lady who lived near the trees
Of a forest dark and shady that made her ill at ease
One day she wandered far from home,
Down the path, along the street,
She sang to herself as she walked,
Still no-one she chanced to meet.Deep in the forest she looked all around
She listened for the calling of the birds' sweet sounds
Suddenly far away she spied a little home
Standing proudly by itself
Standing all alone.Goldilocks Goldilocks long golden hair,
Daddy Bear and Mummy Bear and little Baby Bear
Will soon be coming home so you'd better beware
Will they find you asleep when they creep up the stairs?
Will they find you asleep when they creep up the stairs?
She tasted their porridge, each bowl in its turn
The smallest was the tastiest she soon was to learn
She tried each chair one by one,
She tried the beds and lay her head down
Before too long she was sound asleep,
So weary was she, she heard no sound.
