

Romeo

The Family Crest

My ball and chain
She moves against the sea again
Silent and obscured, shallow and unsure
Shaboom, shaboom Her heart it goes
It raps against her chest again
Muddles out the pain
Cast like wind and rain
She moves, she moves My libido is sprung
And my heart it did long
For your wondrous touch
But as night it drew on
I could hear the faint sound of a crowd
Hark, their voices they sang Go get Romeo
His Juliet is on her back
And she is giving away
Everything that they had
Go get Romeo
His Juliet is on her back again My ball and chain
She drove me to feel young again
Oh the way she moves, seduction through and through
Shaboom, shaboom She stomped her boots to the sound of an erotic aged guitar
And the sound of my heart came out in unison
But far away they sang, she'll be back in his bed again Go get Romeo
His Juliet is on her back
And she is giving away
Everything that they had
Go get Romeo
His Juliet is on her back again My libido is sprung
And my heart, it did long
For your wondrous touch
