

Why Does the Wind? (Michel Cleis Remix)

Tracey Thorn

Don't waste my time now
Don't call me baby when you don't know if you love me
If you're coming or going And don't leave the back door open
And look for a way out and then say maybe
You love me but there's no way of knowing Why does the wind blow through my house at night?
Why does the wind blow through my heart each time I look into your eyes? Don't look for reasons
Don't tear your heart wondering why the light starts fading
When the day the is ending
Embrace the seasons and get to believing
That its only something broken that seems worthwhile mending Why does the wind blow through my house at night?
Why does the wind blow through my heart
Each time I look into your eyes? Your heart is sore like mine was before
You look to the sky and no one cares why
Not even the wind so where to begin And since we exist
And why not just
Why not just
And why not just kiss?
