

A Million Little Pieces

Vibe Tribe

There wasn't much I used to need
A smile would blow a summer breeze through
My heart. Now my mistakes are haunting me,
    Like winter came and put a freeze on
My heart. I've lost the power to understand
    What it takes to be a man with
My heart. I saw you wanted this to end,
    You tried your best to be a friend to
My heart. But I'm leaving this worry town
    Please, no grieving,
My love, understand. Whenever I was feeling wrong
    I used to go and write a song from
My heart. But now I fear I've lost my spark
    No more glowing in the dark for
My heart. So I'm leaving this worry town
    Please, no grieving,
My love, understand. Understand. (x4) Understand
    (Can't you see I'm sick of fighting?)
    Understand
    (Can't you tell I've lost my way?)
    Understand
    (Look at me there's no denying.)
    Understand
(I won't last another day!) So I'm leaving this worry town
    Please no grieving,
My love, understand. That I'm leaving this worry town
    Please no grieving,
My love, understand. All my dreaming torn in kisses,
    All my dreaming torn in pieces,
    All my dreaming torn in pieces,
    All my dreaming torn in kisses
    Now.
