

Echo of my Scream

Fear Factory

This lonely isolation
Follows me through my dreams
I wander around with doubt
So cold and incomplete There is nothing here for comfort
No spark of hope I see
I breathe deep and fill my lungs
To silently release An echo, an echo This is more than a dream to me
I breathe deep and drown my lungs
And release silently
I gasp for breath to only hear what's inside me An echo, an echo
An echo, an echo More than a dream to me
More than a dream to me
More than a dream to me
An echo of my scream I gasp for breath to only hear
I gasp for breath to only hear
I gasp for breath to only hear
I gasp for breath to only hear
I gasp for breath An echo, an echo
An echo, an echo More than a dream to me
More than a dream to me
More than a dream to me
An echo of my scream An echo of my scream
An echo of my scream
An echo of my scream
More than a dream to me
