

Who I Am

Natasha Bedingfield

If you could reach the top of the world a
Be all I am it'd be so beautiful
If only
I could be brave and I could be strong
I would know where I belong
If only I wanna feel free to be who I am
What I'm about is more than I've been
Ready to show the world who I am
Start letting out what I'm holding in
And find my own place to stand
So I can be who I am Yeah
Yeah yeah yeah I have it inside, I know that I do
All that I am is gonna breakthrough
If only
I could believe and live it right now
Take the time to work it out
If only I wanna feel free to be who I am
What I'm about is more than I've been
Ready to show the world who I am
Start letting out what I'm holding in
And find my own place to stand
So I can be who I am Oooh yeeah I'm closer to what I'm meant to be
If I try I know that I can get there
I'm not gonna stop cause I believe
That there's so much more to me
I wanna feel free to be who I am
Oh yeah... is more than I've been
Ready to show the world who I am
Oh yeah yeah yeah yeaaaah Find my own place to stand
So I can be who I am
Yeah yeah yeaaaah
I can be who I am
I can be who I am...
