Unconsolable

X Ambassadors

I hope we stay
Thick as thieves
Butter and bread
Pillars of colonial hope
And I wish I could shout you out
False start
Don't get your cane caught in the cracks, buckle your seatbelts
Polluting the airwaves
Single and lonelyAnd you say you are Unconsolable
And you say you are
Un
And you say you are
Un
Unconsolable
UncontrollableCome up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Aching to start all over again
Going back to your room
Wait a minute, it's my room
Was it something I said?
Was it something I said?And you say you are Unconsolable
And you say you are
Un
And you say you are
Un
Unconsolable
UncontrollableCome up to my house
Drink with my friends
You can lay on my couch
Aching to start all over again
Going back to your room
Wait a minute, it's my room
Throwing up on my bed
Was it something I said?
I said?Well I hope we stay
Thick as thieves

Butter and bread
Pillars of colonial hope
And I wish I could shout you out
False start
Don't get your cane caught in the cracks, buckle your seatbelts
Polluting the airwaves
Single and lonelyAnd you say are Unconsolable
And you say you are
Un
And you say you are
Un
Unconsolable
Uncontrollable
