Air Hostess

McBusted

Let's go
Yeah
Alright
Walking through the terminal
I saw something beautiful
You left, for your duty call
Next I'm getting on the plane
That's when I see you again
I can't get you off my brain, let's go
That uniform you're wearing
So hot, I can't stop staring
You're putting on an awesome show
The cabin pressure's rising
My coke has got no ice in now
Air hostess, I like the way you dress
You know I hate to fly but I feel much better
Occupied my mind writing you a love letter
I messed my pants when we flew over France
Will I see you soon in my hotel room?
For a holiday romance, air hostess
Throwing peanuts down the aisle
Stupid, but it made you smile
You came over for a while
Then you whispered in my ear
The words that I longed to hear
I want you to feel me here
You can't because you're working
The paparazzi's lurking
You didn't know I'm in a band
In England people know me
One photo's worth a hundred grand
Air hostess, I like the way you dress
You know I hate to fly but I feel much better
Occupied my mind writing you a love letter
I messed my pants when we flew over France
Will I see you soon in my hotel room?
For a holiday romance, air hostess
That uniform you're wearing
So hot, I can't stop staring

You're putting on an awesome show
The plane is almost landed
So tell me where I'm standing now
Air hostess, I like the way you dress
You know I hate to fly but I feel much better
Occupied my mind writing you a love letter
I messed my pants when we flew over France
Will I see you soon in my hotel room?
For a holiday romance, air hostess
'Cause you're my air hostess
I like the way you dress
My air hostess
'Cause you're my air hostess
I like the way you dress
My air hostess
