

Struck By Lightning

Volker Strifler Band

And I didn't know how to love

And I didn't know to cry

And I didn't know how to run

And I just want to fly away

A coward only stays, stays

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than break it off tonight

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than try to make you cry

Than try to make you cry

And I thought I knew how to care

And I thought I knew how to try

And I thought if I held her close

I can make

I can make

I can make her laugh again

But a coward only stays as friends

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than break it off tonight

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than try to make you cry

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than break it off tonight

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than try to make you cry

And I wait for sky to clear

And I wish I'd disappear

I can never be your love

I can never be your love

I can never be your love

Your love

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than break it off tonight

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than try to make you cry

I'd rather be struck by lightning

Than break it off tonight

I'd rather be struck by lightning

And try to make it right
And I wait for sky to clear
And I wish I'd disappear
