

Back To The Garden

Big Head Todd And The Monsters

Take me back into your circle of trust
Take me back into your garden
Girl, you know I can't live without your touch
Girl, I can't live without your pardon
You hooked me as a soul fisher-woman
Life laid down as a fighter for justice
Ran out of ammunition as a marksman
Grooving with your charm and charm and charmin'
Then at the end of the tracks with coal of Fight at the pirate engines as I sit back
Dancing slow and I ain't pretending
Woman, what I got for you is never ending
I said what I said to get by
I did what I did to survive
I did what I did to survive
I said what I said to get by
Billed like a bank that the government paid off
Relax into the walks on moon they made up
Figured out the crime but the cops were paid up
Just another Saturday night we should have stayed out
Roller skatin' on the edge of destruction
Politician on the take rules the nation
Didn't make a sound as a spirit broadcaster
Didn't break a rhythm with the new Zen master
I said what I said to get by
I did what I did to survive
I did what I did to survive
I said what I said to get by
Take me back into your circle of trust
Take me back into your garden
Girl, you know I can't live without your touch
Girl, I can't live without your pardon
Won't you fall out of the circle of trust?
There's no getting back into the garden
Now you gonna have to live without her touch
Now you gonna have to live without her pardon
Hell lot of hope but not a lot of harmony
She can hear a hit song and a buzz of melody
She could break a sweat jump and on the dance floor

She could sell you world peace at the mall bookstore
I said what I said to get by
I did what I did to survive
I did what I did to survive
I said what I said to get by
Take me back into your circle of trust
