Endless Dream

X-Act

It's all coming
It's all coming
It's all comingIt's all coming back to me now
That strange and almost endless dream
Where I was you and you were me
You opened up your eyes and I could seeThat you were falling from the world
As aimless as a shooting star in orbit around me
Thinking I was somebody else
And terrified to look at me and see yourself, wellYou are like a dream
And I am just a trip that you are on
When the trip is over you will go back
To the places that you once belongedYou will look for comfort there
And when you do you'll find that it has gone
That is when you'll dream a dream
Where I am you and you are me
And then you'll know my loveSo don't be afraid, your heart is in me
And it's racing so fast now
'Cause everything we ever were or ever will be
Is shapeless as a changing cloudYour letter written on the sky
I'm needing now to read it through my eyes
When you see just what I see
Then tenderly watch it change and just let it be'Cause I am like a dream
And you are just a trip that I am on
When the trip is over I will go back
To the places that I once belongedAnd I will look for comfort there
And when I do I know it will be gone
That is when I'll dream a dream
Where I am you and you are me
And then I'll know your loveSo quiet now
Now get alongThis is just some trip that we are on
When the trip is over we will think of this
As someplace that we once belonged
When I find no comfort hereI'll look again to find it in your arms
That is where I'll dream a dream
Where I am you and you are me
And that's where I know love

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/