

Remember Me

Otis Redding

Remember me
Don't you forget me, child
We are all only here
Just for a little while Do you remember the girl?
The girl that you were dating
Keep all your [Incomprehensible]
And then you walked away Oh yes, he did now
Oh yes, he did You remember when you were sick
You were cripple and you were lame
I stood by your bed time till you
Were on your feet again Oh yes, I did now
Oh yes, I did Oh, somewhere oh down the line
You are gonna see this little heart of mine
Is so large, so wonderful, so true Oh now, somewhere
Brighter days you're gonna see
What a big mistake that you made I said I'm a begging you
I said I'm a begging you
I said I'm pleading, pleading, pleading Remember me
Don't you forget me, child
We are all only here
Just for a little while Oh yes, we're here now, oh yes, we're here
I need a little of your love everyday
I need you to sit and to talk to me right now Every second, every minute, every hour of the day
I need you to hold my little trembling hand
I need you to just stand right by Oh, my, my, my

Songwriters

REDDING, OTIS Published by

Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>