Head Over Hills (Alternate Take)

Blitzkid

Don't lose your head
Don't lose your head
Don't lose your head
Don't lose your headRide with me tonight
Beyond the covered bridge, my darling.
Delicate light in your eyes
I'm in your head, is in my hands.Ride with me tonight
Beyond the covered bridge, my darling.
Don't look back, don't you cry
Shed not a tear in hollow mourningDon't lose your head unless for me
Ride with me darling.
Don't lose your head unless for me
And I will take you awayDon't lose your head
Don't lose your headRide with me tonight
Beyond the covered bridge my darling
Set your crown aside
Princess, were all equal to the scythe.Plead with me tonight.
Beyond the covered bridge my darling
Leave the bones behind,
And the teacher's empty warningsDon't lose your head unless for me
And ride with me darling
Don't lose your head unless for me
And I will take you away
Away
Away
Away
Ride with me...Ride with me tonight
Beyond the covered bridge, my darling
Delicate pain in your cries
I'm in your head, is in my handsDon't lose your head unless for me
I'm begging you darling
Don't lose your head unless for me
I'm begging you darling
Don't lose your head unless for me
I'm begging you darling
Don't lose your head unless for me
And I will take you away
I will take you away, awayDon't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for me

Don't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for me
Don't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for me
Don't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for me
Don't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for me
Don't lose your, don't lose your-
Don't lose your head unless for meAnd I will take you away!
