We Had A Deal

Onelinedrawing

I had a deal with Heaven but it fell through
I had a dream or seven and I'm not sure which one came trueI'm the one that never runs, I'm the one that never stays
I'm the one that disappears, I'm the one that never fades
I am clear and solid truth, I am just one big betray
Tomorrow, tomorrow, I love you, tomorrow.I dream of days that go slow, I dream of someone that won't goForget what's coming, forget what's went
Let's make some laws that make some sense
Something stolen or something lent
A preacher or a president
That never lies and never sins
All tells us what a mess we're in
Tomorrow, tomorrow, I love you, tomorrow.I dream of days that go slow, I dream of someone that won't goI had a deal with Heaven but it fell through
I had a dream or seven, but now I'm not sure which one came true
We had a deal, but now I'm not sureI dream of days that go slow, I dream of someone that won't go
